

Gift Counselor Ministry Description

Chapter 1: Preliminary Considerations

Task	Date
Gift Counselor	March 1, 2001

Goals
To advise members in such a way that (a) their spiritual gifts are confirmed, (b) they find the most suitable place for ministry, and (c) they are challenged to mature in the skillful use of their gifts.

Sub-tasks
(1) To stay informed about current ministry opportunities    (2) To schedule gift-counseling sessions (3) To counsel    (4) To follow up    (5) To forward information to the Ministry Coordinator

Contact people
Responsible for: Church members who need guidance in spiritual gifts and ministry involvements
Responsible to: Ministry Coordinator
Work with: Small group and seminar leaders

Spiritual gifts	Abilities/Interests
At least one or two of these gifts:	Understand the gift-oriented approach.
wisdom, organization, counseling,	Interact well with people.
discernment, teaching	Listen attentively.
	Lead discussions.

Time commitment	Length of assignment
Approximately one to two hours per interview	One year, renewable

Training
Read: The 3 Colors of Ministry and How to Use the 3 Colors of Ministry in a Mentoring Relationship

Additional agreements